

SYNOPSIS

In a Nutshell:

- Tasked with data quality and testing, data migration, data governance, remediation and resilience as well as data strategy projects.
- Experienced with performance measurement metrics, scorecards, executive dashboards, benchmarking, BI reporting and databases.
- Worked in healthcare, banking, insurance, car rental, food, mortgage, financial services, manufacturing and telecommunications industries as Business Systems Analyst, Performance Analyst, Data Analyst, Consultant, Independent Contractor, Applications Developer, Data Strategist and Solutions Engineer.
- Acquired academic training in quantitative analysis techniques on financial, economic and operational data series and marketing research.
- Highly capable and creative with MS Access and Excel at expert level for in-depth and comprehensive data solutions at expert level to deliver BI solutions. Experienced with various BI tools.
- Productive with VBA code to enhance and leverage the functionality of Microsoft Office suite tools based productivity and database connectivity suite tools.
- Strong skills with SQL scripting, reading and modifying the existing complex queries and running on large databases for complex data centric projects.
- Comfortable in agile environment working as liaison between business stakeholders and development teams, attending daily scrum sessions, conducting meetings for data analysis, profiling and source to target mapping.

Career Direction:

- Looking for challenges and opportunities to evolve my overall professional capacity into a level where I can be fully instrumental to deliver a full suite of business intelligence solutions at any data driven organization.
- Working with abstract data structures of key business processes and having an oversight on process flows that identify and utilize key strategic drivers to facilitate informed executive decisions.
- Contribute to the senior leadership team informed decision making process via delivering core metrics and analytics in a timely and accurate manner.

Value Add Deliverables:

- Producing actionable information substantiated with a sound data analysis and presenting it in a timely, accurate and a user friendly manner.
- Creating and implementing Microsoft Office based solutions for end users who consume reports.
- Ensuring data integrity of reporting resources and automating manual data processes to contribute to efficiency and productivity gains.
- Serving the mission critical business decision making processes with an in depth and well rounded data and process analysis.

- Understanding the complex relationships among the key business drivers and entities and reflect them in data models to support trusted and actionable reports.
- Building reporting data structures to track transactional, financial and operational activities.
- Compilation of related data sets to capture and model trends and patterns.
- Incorporating statistical procedures to build predictive models to understand ramifications of activities on performance.